next step?

1. Send your application to the College. (Details below)
2. Within 5 days the College will review your application and information provided.
3. If further information is required, the College will contact you.
4. If your application is accepted, the College will issue you with a Letter of Offer. This will provide details of your course, tuition fees and other important details.
5. To accept your Offer you will need to complete the forms issued, with payment.
6. Early acceptance is recommended to reserve your place. The Letter of Offer does not guarantee a study spot for you. Places are offered on a 'first come first served' basis with payment.
7. Only a Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE) reserves a study spot for you.
